

POST OFFICE MOVED

To Beautiful New Building On West Main Street.

Considerable Work Yet to Be Done On Building.

Although there is yet considerable work to be done on the beautiful new Government Building, the authorities ordered Postmaster H. W. Lockridge to move, and obeying these instructions, on last Friday night he proceeded to carry out the orders.

Every convenience for the public and the employees has been furnished and Mt. Sterling should be more than proud of this handsome structure. The main lobby of the building is open at all hours so that the people who have lock boxes can get their mail any time, which is a great convenience to the business man. The General Delivery window is open from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m.; Money Order and Register from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Butler Gets One to Six Years.

Thomas F. Butler, 28 years of age, a former engineering student of State University, matriculated from Hinton, Harrison county, Ky., was sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for a period of from one to six years for burning the office of Prof. F. Paul Anderson dean of the School of Mechanical and Electrical Engineering, October 30.

Sentence was pronounced against Butler by Judge Charles Kerr in the Fayette Circuit Court Friday afternoon shortly after 2 o'clock, and followed a plea of guilty made for the defendant by his attorney, E. R. Sweetland. Butler had not formally been arraigned on the charge. He was accompanied from the county jail by Deputy Jailor John Randolph and his attorney, Sweetland.

Mrs. Richardson's Body Brought Here From Lexington.

The remains of Mrs. Nancy Ann Richardson, who died at her home one mile from Lexington on the Frankfort pike, were brought to this city Saturday at noon for interment in Machpelah cemetery. The body was accompanied by a number of relatives and friends from Fayette county. Mrs. Richardson is survived by two children, a daughter living in Fayette county and a son living in Lee county, besides many other relatives in this county. She was a good, Christian woman and her loss will be felt by the community in which she resided.

Six Year Term Passes Senate.

A constitutional amendment, which would restrict the President of the United States to a single term of six years and would bar Woodrow Wilson, Theodore Roosevelt and William H. Taft from again seeking election, was approved by the Senate Saturday by one over the two-thirds majority. After a three-days fight, in which the Progressives joined with many Republicans in opposing the restricted presidential term, the Senate adopted the original Works resolution by a vote of 47 to 23.

Mt. Sterling Boy Makes Good.

Mr. F. V. Thomas, formerly of this city, but who has been located in the West until recently when he moved to Lexington and who has been associated with E. Stamler, Architect, has in connection with Mr. Stamler been awarded the contract for the construction of the Nicholasville Public School. This building will contain 17 classrooms, superintendent's office, library, boys' play room and 2 girls' play rooms, teachers' rest rooms etc., and will be one of the most modern school buildings in the State. Mr. Thomas drew the plans which were accepted in competition with architects from Louisville, Cincinnati and Evansville. We are glad to see our old playmate making good.

Mrs. Frank Boyd Wins Ring.

Mrs. Frank Boyd held the lucky number, 7804, which one the $150 diamond ring given away by John W. Jones' Jewelry Store Saturday. 1632 is the number that wins the hall clock but it has not been claimed. The contest which Mr. Jones had on created a great deal of interest and there was a large crowd in front of the store at the drawing.

R. R. Bonds Burned

By Fiscal Court.

At the regular meeting of the Montgomery Fiscal Court yesterday, very little business of importance was transacted, except County Attorney E. W. Senff, in open court, burned five more of the old R. R. bonds of $1,000.00 each, with interest coupons attached. The present administration has been making a strenuous effort to materially reduce the county's bonded and other interest-bearing indebtedness and besides paying a large sum on the bonds and vouchers issued some years ago to buy turnpikes, has reduced the R. R. bonded indebtedness from $55,000.00 to $40,000.00 and an effort will be made to take up several more bonds this fall.

Mrs. A. S. Dickey

Dies in Lexington Hospital.

Mrs. A. S. Dickey, aged 73 years, died at a hospital in Lexington Monday afternoon of a complication of diseases. She formerly lived here but recently had made her home in Fleming county. Mrs. Dickey was a grandmother of Mrs. Wood Owens, (nee Miss Gladys Wilson) and had many friends here who will learn of her death with regret.

The remains arrived here Monday night and the funeral services will be held at the Methodist church this afternoon with burial in Machpelah cemetery.

Ground Hog Sees Shadow.

If Ground Hog Day has anything to do with it we are doomed to have six weeks more of winter. Sunday, the 2nd, was a beautiful sunshiny day and if the ground hog didn't see his shadow it was his own fault. January was almost like a spring month, but from the way February has started in, it looks as though we will get our share of winter yet.

Dies at Asheville, N. C.

Mrs. Nat Downing (nee Miss Nan Finley, of Georgetown, Ky.) died at Asheville, N. C., Saturday where she had just gone for the benefit of her health. Mrs. Downing was well known in this city having often visited here and the news of her sad death will be received with regret by many friends.

Dies Suddenly at Paris

Mr. R. M. Rice, only surviving brother of Mr. Charles Rice, of this city, died suddenly Monday morning at his home in Paris, Ky., of heart trouble. Mr. Rice was notified and left at once for Paris. He was a most excellent man and was known to many of our citizens.

SUDDEN DEATH

Mr. H. Clay Turner Died In Lexington Last Wednesday

Formerly Lived Here Where He Had Many Relatives.

Mr. H. Clay Turner, formerly of this city, died in Lexington last Wednesday night at 10:15 o'clock. Mr. Turner was stricken with paralysis while standing in the lobby of the Leland Hotel Monday. He was removed to his home but all efforts to save his life were of no avail.

Mr. Turner was born in West Liberty, Morgan county, where he engaged in the mercantile business for a number of years. Later he moved to this city where he conducted the National Hotel and afterwards retired to the farm where he was very successful. About six years ago he removed to Lexington where he bought out Mr. C. K. Oldham's Real Estate Agency and later formed a partnership with Mr. Warren Frazer. The firm of Turner & Frazer prospered in the Blue Grass city and was soon recognized as one of the leading real estate agencies in the city.

Mr. Turner was a very popular man wherever he was known, being a director in one of the leading banks in Lexington and a devout member of the Christian Church. He was a big-hearted, whole-souled gentleman and by his many noble deeds had gained the confidence and esteem of countless friends who mourn his loss.

Mr. Turner is survived by his wife and four children, one son, Henry Clay, Jr., and three daughters, Misses Louise, Caroline and Elizabeth. He was a brother of Mrs. John E. Cooper and the late P. B. Turner. The following nephews and nieces also survive: Messdames C. B. Stephens, C. H. Wilson, Gano Caywood; Messrs. J. S. Henry C., George B., Walter V., and Bruce T. Turner and Mr. J. Clay Cooper and Mrs. Stella Cooper Gay, all of this city.

The funeral services were held in Lexington Friday afternoon with burial in Lexington cemetery. The following from here attended the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. J. Clay Cooper, Mrs. Stella Cooper Gay, James S. and Walter Turner.

Write Ideas in Moving Picture Plays

YOU CAN WRITE PHOTO PLAYS AND EARN $25.00 OR MORE WEEKLY

We Will Show You How

If you have ideas—if you can THINK—we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photoplays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever increasing demand. They are offering $100 and more for single scenarios, or written ideas.

Nearly all the big film companies, the buyers of photoplays, are located in or near NEW YORK CITY. Being right on the spot, and knowing at all times just what sort of plots are wanted by the producers, our SALES DEPARTMENT has a tremendous advantage over agencies situated in distant cities.

We have received many letters from the big film manufacturers, such as VITAPHONE, EDISON, ESSANAY, LUBIN, SOLAX, IMP, KEX, RENAISSANCE, CHAMPION, COMET, MELIES, ETC., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and we'll gladly teach you the secrets of success.

We are selling photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for publication."

Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you can think of only one good idea every week, and will write it out as directed by us, and it sells for only $25, a low figure.

You Will Earn $100.00 Monthly for Spare Time Work.

FREE Send your name and address at once for free copy of our illustrated book, "MOVING PICTURE PLAYWRITING."

Don't hesitate. Don't argue. Write NOW and learn just what this new profession may mean for you and your future.

Miners' Wages.

New York City, Feb. 5, 1913. (Special)—Coal miners' wages are a year in West Virginia than any other surrounding states, according to the report of the Commission on the coal industry, which was appointed by Governor Glavin to investigate the general conditions of mining in West Virginia.

In the West Virginia and Ohio coal fields, the report shows that the average annual wage paid to miners was between six hundred and seven hundred dollars. The average for Illinois was $619.00, while Indiana, Pennsylvania and Ohio compares favorably with the Illinois figures.

At several of the mines in the districts which were investigated were found men, wholly illiterate and without any special knowledge or skill who earned from four to five, and in some cases, even six dollars a day—of eight or nine hours.

A minute examination by the Commission of the pay-roll disclosed the fact that sixteen or seventeen days in the month constitute a high average that the miners labored. This is particularly true of native born miners and colored men, and naturally necessitated the coal companies to have on hand at least 30 per cent more miners to carry on the work than was necessary, due to their refusal to work every day in the week.

The Commission's report clearly points out in detail the fact that the miners of West Virginia labored under better conditions than in the coal mines of other states which were investigated.

USE SAILS ON THEIR WAGON

Brooklyn Boys Have Put Novel Idea Into Execution, and Prominence Is a Success.

No gasoline, combustion, engine or other things that go to make the motor car an expensive vehicle are used by seventeen-year-old James P. McGovern of Brooklyn to make his sail wagon, Flying Dutchman, a success. All he requires is wind to enable him to speed along country roads at from twenty to forty miles an hour. McGovern's vehicle is built somewhat on the lines of the motor car. The triangular body is of ordinary lumber, with two large wheels at the "bow" and one at the "stern" for steering purposes.

McGovern and his chum, Richard Killman, nineteen years old, have been traversing the roads of Kings county for some weeks in this machine. The easy of every small boy who sees them.

"I call the Flying Dutchman my sailplane wheel," said McGovern. "It's a wonderful success. Dick and I have got more enjoyment out of it than we would out of a motor car. We get up early mornings, take the eight-foot sail, a gust of wind comes along and away we go."

CONFUSED IMPRESSIONS

"Did Mr. De Guzman see a deer while on his hunting trip?" "Yes. But in his excitement he mistook it for a member of his party and asked it for a cigar."

PUCK ON MODERN MEDICINE.

A very honest man who was sick wanted to keep on living (as reported by Puck). With that end in view he called the neighborhood doctor into consultation. "Big dose," said the Allopath. "Small doses," said the Homoeopath. "Fruit and exercise," said the Hygienist. "Kneading," said the Osteopath. "My favorite prescription," said the Patent-Medicine Man. "This is all very interesting," said the patient. "But likewise it is all very different. Is there any grand principle on which you all agree?" "Yes," they chorused in chorus, "we all agree that when it comes to fees the proper thing is to charge all the traffic will bear and the Devil take the Hindmost. We will send our bill by the next mail." And they did.

HUMAN SHUTTLECOCK.

"Doctor, I wish you would see if you can't remove these unsightly warts from my hands." "Why don't you go to a manicure?" "I did, and she sent me to a chiropodist." "Well?" "Well, he sends me to you." "I'm sorry, sir, but I can't risk my reputation on such a job as that. I shall have to advise you to go to a safe blower."

MORE HUMILIATING.

"Being struck by a train is a horrible experience." "Being tripped by a train is nearly as bad."

BLUFFING.

"The British suffragettes are threatening to blow up parliament." "Oh, that sort of talk is merely bombastic."

PARADOXICAL POLITICS.

"There are queer things sometimes about straight tickets." "What is that?" "When they're crooked."

UNGALLANT.

Miss Oldgirl—I wish, professor, you would give me a few wrinkles. Professor—You already have your fair share, madam.

Women!

If weak, you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from gentle herbs, acts in a natural manner, and has no bad results, as some of the strong drugs sometimes used. As a medicine—a tonic—for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui has been a popular success for over 50 years.

E 57 Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Lela Walden, of Gramlin, S. C., followed this advice. Read her letter: "I was so weak, when I first began to take Cardui, that it tired me to walk just a little. Now, I can do all the general housework, for a family of 9." Try Cardui for your troubles. It may be the very remedy you need.

DOCTOR QUAYLE'S QUIET HINT

Protracted Session of Well-Meaning Friends Had "Got on the Nerves" of Them All.

Dr. W. A. Quayle, bishop of the Methodist church and a popular lecturer, in the early days of his ministry went back to preach one Sunday to a former congregation in Kansas, and was entertained by one of his old parishioners. After the evening services the family gathered round the hearth and exchanged reminiscences with their guest, apparently without any thought of retiring. Eleven o'clock came and 12 o'clock.

The conversation lagged and all showed unmistakable signs of weariness. Doctor Quayle yawned politely and rubbed his drooping eyelids. His host moved restlessly in his chair. His hostess eyed the time-piece with growing alarm. The very air was drowsy, but no one seemed able to end the awkward situation. Finally, as the clock chimed 1:30 o'clock, his hostess asked deprecatingly, but with a note of desperation, in her voice: "Brother Quayle, when do you go to bed?" "When I get a chance," replied Doctor Quayle meekly.

JENNOL GATEWOOD, &c., Defendant

NOTICE OF SALE IN EQUITY.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Montgomery Circuit Court, rendered at the January Term, 1913, thereof, in the above cause, the undersigned will on the 17th Day of February, 1913

at 1 o'clock p. m., or thereabout, (being Court Day), proceed to offer for sale at Public Auction to the highest bidder, on a credit of 6 and 12 months, at the Court House door, in Mt. Sterling, Ky., the property mentioned in the judgment, to-wit:

FIRST TRACT.

A certain lot, tract or parcel of land lying and being in the County of Montgomery, State of Kentucky, on the waters of Spencer Creek, and bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a stake in other lands of J. R. Gatewood (now Mrs. T. J. Thomas) at the N. E. corner of lot No. 1 (Lawless D. Gatewood); thence N. 53 1/4 E. 54.54 poles to a stake where once stood a sugar tree corner to J. T. McCormick's; thence N. 86 W. 50.5 poles to a set stone corner to same; thence S. 2 W. 54.5 poles to a post of a wire fence in a ravine, corner to said McCormick; thence S. 86 E. 47 1-5 poles to the place of beginning, containing therein 16.6 acres of land, together with, as a part thereof, a perpetual right of passway over the lands of John M. Gatewood and Lawless D. Gatewood, which is thus described:

Beginning at a point at or near the S. W. corner of J. R. Gatewood's lands where a gateway is now located on Lawless D. Gatewood's line; thence across lot No. 1 along a practicable route until it strikes John M. Gatewood's east line of lot No. 2 near the route of the present road that leads from the dwelling house to the Spencer turnpike; thence across lot No. 2 over the route of the present road to the point where the present road strikes the turnpike.

The said boundary of land being a part of the lands conveyed to the said J. R. Gatewood by deed of John M. Gatewood and others, of date the 7th day of January, 1908, and now duly of record in deed book 63 at page 173, in the Montgomery County Court Clerk's office. And the right of passway above named being the same right of passway named in said deed and being as well the right of passway named in deed from J. R. Gatewood and others to John M. Gatewood, of date the 7th day of January, 1908, and the deed from John M. Gatewood and others to Lawless D. Gatewood, of date the 7th day of January, 1908, now duly of record in said deed book at pages 175 and 177 respectively.

FOUND ROOSTER TOO LOVING

Pennsylvania Attorney Pawned Bird Whose Bump of Affection Was Too Strongly Developed.

William H. Stonesifer, dealer in second-hand goods, had the surprise of his career when Robert Challis, a Wilkes-Barre attorney and former Dickinson college student, walked into his place of business and asked if he might pawn a live rooster which he had with him, says a Carlisle (Pa.) dispatch.

Challis, it appears, had strolled into the country while visiting here and came across a rooster that he admired. The attraction was mutual, and the attorney purchased the fowl, intending to take it home with him. Before a day had passed, however, the rooster became so affectionate that it almost worried the life out of him. It followed him around to his meals, perched at the foot of his bed while he slept and became a nuisance when it awakened him by early morning crowing.

The position of valet to a large rooster proving too exciting, Challis, in a desperate effort to rid himself of the bird, sought the assistance of Stonesifer and the transfer was completed, despite the fact that the rooster strenuously objected to the parting. This is the first time on record that a rooster has been pawned in Carlisle.

SEE MISTAKES OF THE PAST

Lost Opportunities for Making Friends a Source of Regret in One's Closing Days.

The most pathetic phase of life is a realization of the friends that we never make; the friends that might have been made by just exerting ourselves a little more. Who ever contemplated the loss of friends that he might have made by just releasing a little of his self-centered reserve?

We appreciate the person who always greets us at meeting day after day. It is so easy, so simple to spread the halo of happiness about us that we often overlook it and go through the world thinking that every smile and every good impulse we have is not worth while unless harnessed away for something in exchange. There life loses its whole value. It is when it comes from within with a worthy motive that happiness is truly ours.—National Magazine.

SHORTER THAN HE WAS TALL.

Some time ago the cashier of a bank in a small Missouri town was reported missing and an examination of his books revealed a large sum of money missing from the bank's vault. The officials immediately sent to Kansas City for a detective. When he arrived he sought the president of the bank to secure a description of the missing cashier.

"How tall was your cashier?" he asked.

"Goodness knows," was the reply. "but he was $5,000 short."—Kansas City Star.

WHY HE WAS NERVOUS.

"A Los Angeles school aims to prepare young girls for marriage."

"On the presumption, I suppose, that the old girls have been prepared for marriage so long that they can teach them nothing."

"Oh, be serious. I think this idea is going too far, and could only be carried out in a state that has given women the ballot."

"Just what is your idea of preparing a young girl for marriage?"

"Why, fitting her to call the turn on all these excuses we give when we stay out late."

$5,000.00?

"But why do you operate now, doctor?"

"He is recovering so rapidly we can't afford to wait."—Life.

HEREDITY.

THE STATE PRIMARY LAW.

As the new State Primary Law is misunderstood by so many people we will briefly explain its important features.

All candidates of every party for any State, county, district or city office, to be filled by popular vote, must be selected in this primary. All parties nominate on the same day, the first Saturday in August. Having cast more than twenty per cent. of the vote in the last Presidential election, we have three recognized political parties—the Democratic, Republican and Progressive. Four officers for each precinct are selected by the County Election Commissioners as if it were a regular November election. A candidate to have his name placed on the ballot for a county office must file a petition with the County Clerk not later than thirty days before the election containing not less than three per cent. of the voters of his party in each precinct of the county. In order that no candidate can "freeze out" his opponents the law prohibits more than ten per cent. to be filed by any one candidate. No candidate can circulate his petition more than ninety days before the election and every voter signing a petition must give his post office address and the date upon which he signed same. All this is not "red tape," as some choose to call it, but is intended to insure fairness.

GET BUSY.

We recently saw a cartoon which reminded us of several local characters. It was a picture of a lazy fellow, sitting near a stove, where he said he had been patiently waiting ever since the election for prosperity to make its appearance. This is the case with many. Opportunity likes to be discovered, after a hard search. If you want prosperity, look for it. Don't be afraid of a little work in order to find it. Remember one will rust out long before he will wear out.

The daily newspapers tell us that an "Anti-cigarette crusade is to be inaugurated in the public schools of Lexington." This should also be done in Mt. Sterling, where children from six to fifteen years of age can almost daily be seen smoking on their way to and from school and some of the older ones puff at a pipe as aptly as their grandfathers could.

Rowan county has sixteen candidates for Jailer. Another case of 16 to 1.

Don't get discouraged, boys, the Recruiting Office is yet with you.

JUDGE ALLIE W. YOUNG.

Governor Jas. B. McCreary has appointed Judge Allie W. Young to preside at a special term of the Breathitt Circuit Court which began Monday, owing to the absence of the regular presiding Judge D. B. Redwine, who is ill in Florida. In looking over the various judges in the Commonwealth our worthy Governor could not have selected a better man to preside over the Breathitt court, where so many criminal cases are to be tried, for Judge Young is recognized as one of the best judges of criminal law in the State and it is expected that this term of the court will be an epoch-making one. The good people of Breathitt have gotten together now and the law-breaker must go.

Fine Lot Of Horses.

Mr. James R. Magowan, owner of Elmwood Stock Farm, has announced that he will ship to the Lexington Horse Sales this month 41 head of his fine bred stock, among them being a number of youngsters by his famous stallion J. Malcolm Forbes (4) 2:08, besides a number of splendidly bred brood mares, one the dam of the Champion Frank Perry, one a full sister to Todd, so that it can be seen that his horses will be among the very best offered at the sale. Mr. Magowan has announced that he will not race his game little horse Mainleaf (3) 2:08½ this year but will start J. Malcolm Forbes late in the season. The fact that Mainleaf will not start will be disappointing to the horses many admirers all over the country who remember his game fight in the Kentucky Futurity year before last, when had he been given anything like fair treatment he would have won, as it was he demonstrated that he is one of the gamest trotters that the turf has ever known. He in company with J. Malcolm Forbes will make the season of 1913 at Mr. Magowan's stock farm near this city. Mr. Magowan is not retiring as he has retained 12 brood mares but will devote the greater part of his time to the breeding industry instead of the racing game.

Tobacco Sales.

Tobacco continues to pour into the local market and during the past week both houses have been selling capacity floors at almost every sale. The quality hasn't been nearly so good as it was earlier in the season and it has been in too high case. The price has been off two or three cents but the market Monday was decidedly better than on Friday, and with good selling conditions the price will probably pick up at the next sale. At any rate the market here is holding up equally as well as any place in the State and the farmers are generally satisfied with the prices obtained, while speculators have "cried" a little owing to the slump.

Increase In Weight Of Parcel Post Packages Recommended.

Postmaster General Hitchcock's annual report suggests reduction of some parcel post rates and increasing the limit of weight beyond eleven pounds; civil pensions for postal employees; an increase in rates on second class mail, which may pave the way for 1 cent letter postage, and consolidation of the third and fourth classes so books and papers may be forwarded by parcel post.

Tabb Opera House, Feby. 19th.

In the announcements of amusements to be seen in this city very soon, one notes with interest that the notable Mort H. Singer Musical Revue, "Miss Nobody From Starland," with the clever star, Miss Olive Vail, in the title role, is included. This splendid offering possesses the charm of originality, tuneful music, bright characterizations and genuine surprises, and is an ever welcome entertainment for the lover of good musical comedy. Since its first presentation at the Princess Theatre, Chicago, where it ran for over three hundred performances "Miss Nobody From Starland" has gained the good will of theatre patrons from the Atlantic to the Pacific Coast and it is safe to say that no other musical offering is better able to lure the amusement seeker to its presence again and again. The clever star, Miss Olive Vail, will be supported by an excellent cast of principals and a chorus of pretty girls.

Aching Kidneys Cured in Mt. Sterling

Are YOUR Kidneys Weak?

HOW TO TELL—Turn red to testimony and learn what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for you.

When your back aches or sharp pains strike you when stooping or lifting, if you are tired and run down, if you have dizzy spells and are nervous, if you are inclined to worry or fret, if the kidney secretions are highly increased and full of sediment, if passages are too frequent, watery, painful or itching, it is likely that your kidneys need your attention.

Take a sample of the urine and let it stand for 24 hours. If a sandy, brick-dust or sediment settles to the bottom of the receptacle, there is evidence enough to suspect the kidneys.

If Your Back Aches and Your Kidneys are Weak, Get the Kidney Remedy That Has Been Proved GOOD Again and Again Right Here in Mt. Sterling.

Mt. Sterling People Tell It:

WEST HIGH STREET

R. M. Freeman, 169 W. High St., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I think that driving weakened my kidneys. The roads are rough and the jarring is enough to shake a man to pieces. My back began to pain and ache and my kidneys were not right. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Duerson's Drug Store, gave me quick and lasting relief. Whenever I feel that my kidneys need tending up, I take Doan's Kidney Pills and they keep me right away. No one having kidney complaint can make a mistake in giving this remedy a trial."

HARRISON AVENUE

Mrs. Emma Brum, 25 Harrison Ave., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "When we used Doan's Kidney Pills in our family in 1908 they proved beneficial. I gladly confirm all that was said in their praise at that time. A member of the family was in bad shape with kidney trouble and suffered intensely from his back when he got Doan's Kidney Pills at Duerson's Drug Store. One box gave him entire relief. I have used this remedy myself and it has helped me wonderfully."

JAMISON STREET

Mrs. N. Trimble, 17 Jamison St., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "All I said in 1908 praising Doan's Kidney Pills was correct. I am glad to confirm it now. The worst trouble I had was with my kidneys. Their action was irregular and the kidney secretions were unnatural. While I did not have much backache, I was subject to severe pains in my loins and often had nervous spells. I slept poorly and in the morning felt all tired out. Finally I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Duerson's Drug Store, and I felt better. I continued taking them until I was well."

MONTGOMERY STREET

John Forman, 5 Montgomery St., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I have been a hard worker all my life and have once considered that to overdo would some day bring on back or kidney troubles. When I had some lifting or heavy work to do I just went about it and did it and in that way wrenched my back. I was laid up for several days at the time and began looking around for a cure. I did not find anything that would help me until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Duerson's Drug Store. They soon made me feel well and strong and free from kidney trouble."

The above statement was given in 1908, and in a personal interview with Mr. Forman he said: "Doan's Kidney Pills have done me more good than anything else I have ever taken. I am glad to confirm what I said heretofore."

HAMILTON AVENUE

Charles Neal, 12 Hamilton Ave., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "All I have previously said in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills still holds good. They have brought me so much good that I can recommend them strongly. Another member of my family has a severe pain across the back. Different medicines were tried but nothing did any good until I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at Duerson's Drug Store. They proved to be a good remedy and gave me entire relief."

STROTHER STREET

Mrs. Mary F. Henson, 21 Strother St., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are indeed all that one could want for kidney complaint. What I said in 1908 in their praise still holds good. Had I not taken Doan's Kidney Pills, I believe that I would not be alive today. My health was very poor and the doctor said I had diabetes. I doctored but in vain. My whole system became affected and I was almost helpless. I had nervous spells, headaches, and my sight was poor. I often became dizzy and had to catch ahold of something for support. For several months my body was so badly swollen that I could not bend. I finally read of Doan's Kidney Pills and decided to try them. I got a box at Duerson's Drug Store. The relief they brought me was almost instant and I continued using them until I was well."

RICHMOND STREET

Mrs. Nelson, 43 Richmond St., Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I still think highly of Doan's Kidney Pills and gladly confirm all I said in their praise in 1908. They have been of great benefit to me and if I had not used them I would have been in a bad shape today. I suffered from most every form of kidney trouble. My back pained me and irregular action of the kidney secretions was annoying. I felt tired and worn out and I had nervous headaches. Doan's Kidney Pills changed all this and after taking them I felt like a different woman."

Girls and Labor.

Co-operation among men and loyalty of the individual woman to a group, such as a labor union, is proverbially difficult to attain. Miss Josephine Casey of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union said recently to an audience of girl strikers:

"There are too many girls in the garment trade who say: 'I don't care what conditions are; I'll get married in a short time.' But girls, don't forget that if you take that stand you are cheating your future husbands out of a livelihood for themselves and for you also."

Many speak of a deep-seated lack of loyalty in the nature of women, of an inability on her part to comprehend the significance of concerted action for a distant end, of teamwork. But experience with women in club work, in family groups, in college activities, in the life of small communities, does not seem to ratify that view. Loyalty is a none too common trait of human nature, but in every case where the need for group action is clearly understood by the women they show themselves quite as capable of self-sacrificing loyalty as men. But the training of the girl, especially among the children of foreign laborers, is all designed to turn this capacity into unquestioning obedience to an individual man—father, husband, big brother boss. All the practice in teamwork that the boy gets from his "gang" and his games is denied to the girl.

It takes an idea of very hard-gritting force to break down these traditions and allow the girl's power of devotion to express itself in loyalty to her fellows. That so much devotion is shown by the girls to their unions, and such heroic work is done in spite of these drawbacks, is the best possible proof of a capacity for organization in women. But too many girls look upon industry as a temporary condition to be scrambled through any old way on the road to matrimony. Made them understand that by their slipshod work, by their carelessness of conditions, they are endangering their future homes, lowering the wages of their future husbands, lessening the chances of their hoped-for children, and their womanly devotion will be flung into the fight for better conditions until the woman's unit as well form the strongest link in the solidarity of the laboring classes.—Collier's.

Made Strong and Well by Vinol.

When we tell you that Vinol is the best remedy in our whole stock for making weak, puny, ailing children strong, robust and rosy, we are only telling you what has been proved by hundreds of mothers.

Mrs. W. O. Strother, Raleigh, N. C., says: "My little girl, Hazel, has been taking Vinol to build her up after a severe spell of sickness. It has done no much good by restoring her appetite and building up her strength that I think Vinol is the finest tonic ever prepared, and I am telling everyone about it."

What Vinol did for this little girl it will do for very weak and ailing child, because sickly children need the strengthening cod liver elements and the tonic iron that Vinol contains—that is why Vinol builds them up quickly and gives them a fine, healthy color. It is pleasant to take, and we guarantee that the results will satisfy you—money back if they do not.

Motto for a Home.

The home is dedicated to good will. It grew out of love. The two heads of the household were called together by a power higher than they. To its decree they are obedient. Every tone of the voice, every thought of their being, is subdued to that service. They desire to be worthy of their high calling, as ministers of that grace. They know their peace will go unbroken only for a little time. And often they suspect that the time will be even shorter than their anxious hope. They cannot permit so much as one hour of that brief unity to be touched by scorn or malice. The world's judgments have lost their sting inside this door. Those who come seeking to continue the harmony which these two have won are ever welcome. The rich are welcome, so they come simply. The poor are welcome, for they have already learned friendliness through buffeting. Youth is welcome, for it brings the joy which these two would learn. Age is welcome, for it will teach them tenderness.

Child Life.

One naturally thinks of childhood as being a happy period of earthly existence, and it is if only the child has half a show—hunger appeased "a bright rag and an old clothes pin for a doll," are sufficient to cause a wreath of smiles—but oh, the miserable condition of thousands of little ones! pinched, sallow faces and weak constitutions on account of ill nourishment.

It is said there are over 1,700,000 children in the United States under the age of sixteen in the ranks of child laborers, many of these being just little tots who have to stand or sit all day long doing some monotonous duty. A look from their sad, pleading eyes is enough to make one's heart bleed. Gradually laws are being passed by different states to better these conditions.

Charged With Operating a Lottery

Nate McCutcheon, editor of the Windsor (Mo.) Review; W. J. and C. S. Cotton, of the Four County Windorite; F. C. Livingston, George W. Weatherold, H. L. and A. B. Winzenried, and Thos. Woodward, merchants, were arrested by federal officials on the charge of operating a lottery and advertising it in the newspapers. It is alleged in the complaint that the men inaugurated a series of "sales ads," and to add interest to these events and draw larger crowds the mercantile firms offered special premiums, ranging from $50 in gold down. Each of the firms, it is alleged, gave away numbered tickets and held a drawing on the sale day, at which the prizes were awarded. The editors and merchants were put under bond to appear before the Federal Grand Jury at Kansas City in April.

Juvenile Courts.

The truant, the delinquent and the neglected child are subjects for the Juvenile Court. One time the law only punished such children, later on it sought to reform them and now we are in the period of education and prevention.

The first Juvenile Court was established in Chicago in 1899 and since that time many children have been saved to useful lives by the counsel and encouragement given by the kind judges who try their cases in a most informal way—usually in the presence only of their parents and the probation officer. Before the case is tried the probation officer makes thorough investigation into the child's home, school or work place. Sometimes the case is dismissed, sometimes the offenders are put on probation and sometimes it is thought best to place him in some children's institution. Several of our deaconesses are probation officers.

Special Motor Car Models for the Cincinnati Auto Show.

On Monday, February 24th, at the hour of 8 p. m., the Cincinnati Automobile Show will open doors for a continuous session covering full ten days, six of them devoted to the pleasure car section, the other four to that of the commercial vehicle.

Though all the shows held here previously have been emphatic successes, the present one gives honest promise of new records in the way of attractive, original displays, from the fact that Cincinnati is now a part of the ten-city circuit formed by the National Association of Manufacturers for the purpose of expediting the transfer, from point to point, of all the special models and designs gracing the floors of the wide sweeping exhibits in New York, Chicago and other large cities of the country.

One of these novelties for example, is to be a chassis, pearl-white in coloring, and so constructed as to reveal to the eye every inner detail of operation.

The decorative scheme of the show is again to be under charge of the William Beck & Sons' Company, which is to begin its work promptly on February 1st and continue almost to the hour of opening on Monday, February 24. The color plan herein is to be of white and delicate green, with particular attention to the enf, which is to be done after the fashion of pergola and open-face lawn.

Of exhibitors there are to be 52 in the pleasure-car department and 16 in that devoted to the motor trucks.

NOT INQUISITIVE.

"Ever take the trouble to inspect the parts of your car, Willigus?" asked Bjones.

"Not since the first time," said Willigus.

"First time?" said Bjones. "Why, what do you mean?"

"Oh, the first car I had," said Willigus, "I dropped a lighted cigarette in the gasoline tank and I saw all the parts I wanted to in two seconds. Never had any curiosity since." Judge.

An open confession may be good for the soul, but it is hard on the reputation.

IN LAND OF WHITE NIGHTS Summer in Finland Just One Long, Uninterrupted Day That Must Be Monotonous.

June is the month of the "white nights" in the north. In Finland one can read a newspaper in the open air at midnight, and the sky is bright with a tender, gentle radiance. There is no break between the sunset and dawn, and the same rosy flush serves for both.

Strictly speaking, summer in Finland is just one long day. The moment the first star glimmers in the south it is a sign that autumn is at hand. The long period of light exercises a marvelous effect upon vegetation and the leaves of trees grow to an enormous size. Up north, the development of plant life is crowded into a few weeks, but it is none the less perfect for that.

Though few people realize it, it is a fact that in June London has only 5½ hours of darkness. Up at Aberdeen in clear nights, there is no darkness, only a kind of twilight. Scottish gardeners, if they wished, could work in the open at midnight, except, perhaps, in the south of our sister country.

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE

BIBLE STUDY ON

GOD'S RAINBOW COVENANT.

Genesis 8:1-9:17—Feb. 9.

"I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth."—Genesis 9:13.

HIGHER Critics refer us to clay tablets found in Babylonia as the earliest record of the Noachian Deluge. These represent in outline Noah and a boat, and contain a few words descriptive of the Flood. This we are asked to accept as superior to the Genesis account. We are amazed! and recall to mind the prophecy which discusses our day, saying, "The wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their learned men shall not be apparent." (Isaiah 29:14.) For our part, the logical, reasonable statements of Genesis respecting the Flood are a hundred times more trustworthy than the crude Babylonian record.

Noah and his family dreaded another deluge. God called their attention to the rainbow, assuring them that never again would the whole earth be flooded. Because earth's last "ring" had come down, there could not be another deluge. Since the Flood, we have moisture in the form of clouds.

Prior to the Flood, the sun shone through the watery envelope as a great ball of fire. Hence no rainbow was possible. But now fine vapors in the direct line of the sun's rays naturally cause the rainbow. As God declares, so long as there is a rainbow, there can never be a flood.

The Tower of Babel.

Centuries afterward, the worldly-wise of that time undertook the building of a great tower, antcipulating another deluge. Since they disregarded God's promise, He let them manifest their folly in unavailing sweat of face. When they were wearied by their herculean task and had learned valuable lessons, God confounded their language. Separated in tongue and interest, they scattered. Gradually manners, customs and color of skin became dissimilar. Thus the various races with their peculiarities of temperament and language had their start. St. Paul remarks that this was premeditated on God's part as being most favorable for the outworking of Divine purposes.

The separation of mankind into different nationalities and the barriers of language kept the peoples apart for centuries. But since steam became effective for transportation, the commingling of nations is breaking down national barriers and favoring human co-operation. Since mankind are sinners by nature, their co-operation is usually selfish and therefore evil.

Today rich corporations are building a great Tower of Babel for protection against calamity. Likewise the laboring classes are building a great Tower of Unionism, to deliver them from all adversity. Except for the dispersion and the language barriers, these worldwide organizations would have developed long ago and precipitated the final great conflict—"a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation."—Daniel 12:1.

Fire, the Next Calamity.

St. Peter divides human history into three great Epochs, called "worlds" in our common version Bible. The first Epoch ended with the Flood, where the present Epoch began, styled by St. Paul, "This present evil world." St. Peter says that the present world will be ended by a deluge of "fire." Then will follow a new "world," or order of things. "The world to come," will be an Epoch of Righteousness, under Messianic supervision.

Bible students formerly understood St. Peter's words to signify literal fire, to consume the physical earth and heavens. Closer study shows that the fire is symbolic, and will consume everything contrary to the Divine will. The "elements" to "melt with fervent heat" are Capital and Labor elements. The friction between these will soon burst into flame, as St. Peter prophesied. The "heavens" are ecclesiastical—the church institutions. These will become involved in the strife between Capital and Labor, and will perish.

Christ Jesus is the Ark of Safety for all who will be saved from the present order. His followers will become with Him the "new heavens"—the spiritual ruling power of Messiah's Kingdom. Under their supervision a new social order will be inaugurated, and selfishness will be eliminated.

Although many lives will be lost in that trouble which ends this Age, the great mass of mankind will remain. Social, financial and ecclesiastical arrangements will have perished, and everything be put on a new basis by Messiah. The Lord tells us that following the fiery trouble He will send mankind a pure Message, "that they may all call upon the name of the Lord to serve Him with one consent." (Zechariah 3:9.) Mankind will not be wholly destroyed by that fiery trouble. The confusion of doctrines given forth in the name of the Lord will terminate with this Age. The Message of Divine Grace promulgated in the future will be pure, and the blessing to all that will receive it will be great.

You know us. You know we would not—that we could not afford to—go back on our word. Nor can you afford to ignore this money-back-if-not-satisfied offer on this splendid laxative.

We honestly believe we have the best bowel remedy ever made—the most pleasant-to-take, most permanently beneficial laxative for relief from the miseries and dangers arising from constipation.

We wouldn't say this if we didn't believe it to be true. We wouldn't risk our reputation by making such statements did we not feel sure you would find them true.

Our faith is built both on the knowledge of what Rexall Orderlies are made of and on observation of very many severe cases in which they have proven their merit.

Try them at Our Risk

If they do not abundantly prove their merit with you also—if you are not entirely satisfied with them—we will refund your money—and we will do that on your mere say-so. We don't ask you to risk a penny. Isn't that fair?

Just let the bowels fail in properly doing their work—just let their action be delayed and incomplete and the entire system and every other organ suffers. Wastes that

POULTRY

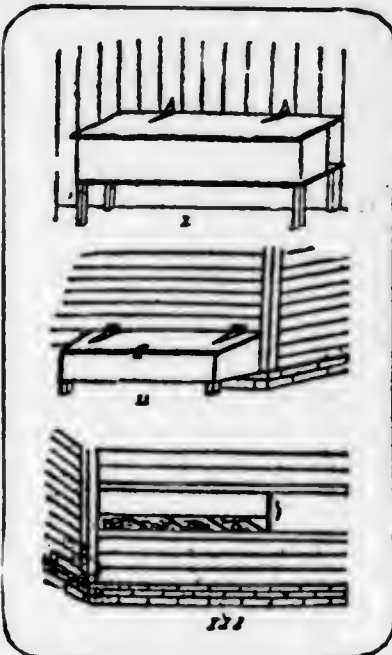

ATTRACTIVE NESTS FOR HENS

Discarded Grocery Boxes, Such as Used for Soap or Condensed Milk, May Be Used.

Nests that are attractive to hens because of their privacy, sanitary as to character and convenient for the gathering of eggs are the claim of every one who keeps fowls either in a limited number or on a large scale, says a writer in the New York Tribune Farmer. Various are the nest arrangements employed by the different poultrymen, and varied in character must they continue to be to suit the requirements of the fowls and the plan of the poultry house. But no style of nest that is at all practical can fail to be suggestive to any poultryman who has not yet solved the nest problem to his liking. The nests herewith described are intended to suggest rather than to invite exact imitation.

A convenient style of nest is shown in illustration No. 1. The nests are arranged along the wall, with the open sides inward, space enough being allowed at the ends to admit the fowls. A hinged cover at the top makes egg gathering a simple matter. These nests may be improvised from wooden boxes nailed together, one side being removed and the hinged cover hung over them. Support is furnished by four uprights which raise the nests about one foot above ground. The nest boxes should be as smooth as possible, and painted inside and out.

Another convenient arrangement is the row of nests accessible to the fowls from the inside of the building, but projecting beyond its wall, and having a hinged cover which may be lifted from the outside to permit the gathering of eggs. If necessary a padlock may be used to secure this cover.

Style No. 2 is preferable to style No. 1 in cold climates. The nests are along the inside wall, supported above the ground and open at the top. A slide in the wall allows the gathering of eggs from outside. Grocery boxes, such as soap or condensed milk boxes, may serve for the nests, being so divided that two nests are formed from one box. They should be movable so that they may be readily cleaned.

FRESH-AIR HOUSES FOR EGGS

Excellent Results Secured by Leaving Screen Door Open—Wheat Straw Used for Litter.

Some years ago, while trying to make poultry pay on a small scale, I tried the open-air house. By making a screen door at one end and leaving this open day and night I secured twice as many eggs as in my other houses not so provided, says a writer in an exchange. Now that I am keeping fowls on a lower scale I always use some kind of fresh air house with good results. Wheat straw is spread in the chicken house to the depth of six inches. In this the feed is scattered, oats, wheat, barley, sorghum seed, etc., for morning and noon feeds. The evening meal consists of a mash of boiled potatoes thickened with bran, beef meal, a little ground oats and cornmeal slightly salted. After the fowls have eaten all they want I feed ear corn for a finish. Beef scrap, charcoal, grit and oyster shell are constantly before them. The straw is cleaned out every day and replaced with fresh the next morning. If the weather is bad and the fowls have to stay in doors, I replace twice a day. I have no trouble in getting eggs in winter from bred-to-lay white leghorn and white Wyandotte fowls. Both varieties are good.

White Eggs.

For the fancy white egg trade the requirements are freshness—indicated by almost perfect fullness of the shell and strong body—uniformly large size and chalk-white color. The most common defects are shrinkage and, in summer, weak body and lack of size; then many shippers let cream-tinted eggs go in with the whites and this injures the sale except in competition with general supplies.

DEVIL TAVERN STILL STANDS

Public House That Was the Favorite Resort of Ben Jonson and Other Poets.

At the present time it would be difficult to discover a London tavern ever called by the name of "The Devil." But in the eighteenth century 1 Fleet street, still in existence, was so called.

"The Devil's Tavern" was so called owing to the proximity of St. Dunstan's church and the fond recollection of an interlude between the saint and the Evil One.

This was Ben Jonson's favorite resort and here he presided over a club of which he was the founder. He wrote once:

"The first speech in my 'Catiline,' spoken to Scylla's ghost, was writ after I had parted with my friends at the Devil tavern; I had drunk well that night and had brave notions."

It was also the resort of Shadwell, pillorized as Og by Dryden in his "Absalom and Achitophel."

Here the poets laureate used to rehearse their birthday odes, so carefully written with the minimum of emotion in the Augustan style, and here Killigrew laid one of the scenes in his "Parson's Wedding."

Swift, in his "Journal to Stella," the human document of a passionate being, mentions dining here with Addison and Garth. Pope has embalmed it in the amber of his classic verse.

Here Goldsmith, in his prosperous hours, played at cards, and in 1751 Dr. Johnson assembled his merry and almost famous party to celebrate the publication of the delightful Mrs. Charlotte Lennox' first novel, "The Life of Harriet Stuart."—New York Sun.

EXPENSIVE HABIT

"Isn't office-seeking rather expensive?"
"Yes. It costs almost as much as running an automobile."

GRAND CANYON.

In the Grand Canyon the highest sides are 6,233 feet above the stream, but they are perpendicular for only some 3,000 feet, when the gloomy chasm is often but a few hundreds of feet wide. Above that the sides slope off in a series of cliffs to the level of the surrounding country, and if the world lasts long enough and a greater rainfall should come, a deep and wide valley will exist there some day. It would be folly to attempt to say when the erosion that has made the canyon first set in. It may have been as long ago as a million years. The exact time is pure guesswork.

IN THE BARNYARD.

Gocse—My dear Mrs. Hen, the papers are certainly making a great fuss about you. Doesn't it make you proud?

Hen—Of course it doesn't. They only do it to egg me on.

HER KIND.

"What kind of a star did that young actress turn out to be?"
"I think since the show closed she has been a mourning star."

RESULT IN KIND.

"Why don't you put a bold front on the matter?"
"Because I'm afraid it will be a comeback."

NATURAL REASON.

"Why is it, children that the race is not always to the swift?"
"Cause, teacher, sometimes they git their tires busted."

SAFE AND SANE.

"I am going to marry a baker."
"Why a baker?"
"Isn't he the man who can always furnish the dough?"

"THE ALPHA AND OMEGA OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY."

Beginning with Lincoln and on down to Ted, Forgiving the faults of those who are dead, The young and the old and the low and the high, Shall soon be forgotten and together shall die.

And they with the tariff and trusts shall fade, Be scattered and lost with the gold they have made, So the Republicans shall go like the flower or weed, That withers away that right may succeed.

And the Democrats shall come even those that we know, To watch the last act of the Republican show, In peace let them depart and never return, And with the devil and his angels forever be burned.

Their down fall was predicted before the convention, For between Teddy and Taft there was quite a contention, And matters grew worse and they couldn't agree, As to which would best serve as the trusts nominee.

For it was just as much Teddy as it was Mr. Taft, They split up their party for political graft, And it was well for the nation that they didn't agree, The best for our country that could possibly be.

It was then Mr. Bryan beholding contention, Made ready to play at the Baltimore convention, And while they were discussing which it should be, Mr. Bryan made Wilson their nominee.

To this each member of the convention agreed, And through Mr. Bryan did the party succeed, The election was fixed for the fifth of November, Which Teddy and Taft and the Trusts will remember.

So good-bye Col. Teddy and farewell Mr. Taft, Good-bye all Republicans with your trusts and your graft, May you vanish forever like a break in the wave, As you pass from all power to your political grave.
